

Kindergarten to College: Student Supply Drive

Trinity is collecting back-to-school supplies for college-age REACH* students and for K-12 students through Tuscaloosa's One Place. If you would like to contribute, please bring items from these lists to Trinity by Sunday, August 2. If you would prefer to make a monetary donation, please designate that it is for Missions.

Suggested Items for UA REACH Students

- Index cards
- Multi-subject notebooks
- Gel pens
- T98 Scientific Casio calculators
- Umbrellas
- Individually wrapped snacks (chips, cookies or protein bars)
- Microwavable cups of noodles, mashed potatoes, macaroni and cheese, and Rice a Roni

Suggested Items for K-12 Students

- Paper towels and tissues
- Disinfecting wipes
- Plastic baggies of various sizes, from snack to gallon
- White and colored cardstock
- Black Expo makers
- Hand sanitizer
- Band-aids
- White copy paper
- TI30 XIIS scientific calculators

REACH is a program for students facing unique challenges, including current and former foster youth, legal orphans, youth raised in kinship/guardianship care and students experiencing homelessness.*